QUESTION: Section B. Prior Experience as Prime Contractor states that 11x17 paper is preferred and is asking for references for basically roadway type construction. The JOC is for all types of construction so my question is:

- Will the contractors lose points if we explain projects on 8.5x11 paper?
- Can the contractor show experience for several types of construction?

ANSWER: You will not lose points for submitting Section B on an 8.5x11 paper.

ANSWER: Our intent is for contractors to submit in any of the construction tasks and/or pre-construction services outlined in Section II. that was successfully and substantially completed.
